For Immediate Release

BIOHEART TO PRESENT AT 22ND MEDITERRANEAN
CONFERENCE OF MEDICINE AND THERAPEUTIC COSMETIC SURGERY

Sunrise, FL – May 14, 2014 – Bioheart, Inc. (BHRT.OB), a biotechnology company focused on the discovery, development and commercialization of autologous cell therapies, announced that it will present at the 22nd Mediterranean Conference of Medicine and Therapeutic Cosmetic Surgery in Barcelona, Spain May 16th -18th, 2014.

Kristin Comella, Bioheart’s Chief Scientific Officer, will present a summary of data on the use of adipose stem cells to treat a variety of indications. The Mediterranean conference, to be held at the Hotel Melia Sitges in Barcelona, will explore advances in non-traditional treatments in therapeutic cosmetic surgery and procedures.

About Bioheart, Inc.

Bioheart, Inc. is committed to maintaining its leading position within the cardiovascular sector of the cell technology industry delivering cell therapies and biologics that help address congestive heart failure, lower limb ischemia, chronic heart ischemia, acute myocardial infarctions and other issues. Bioheart’s goals are to cause damaged tissue to be regenerated, when possible, and to improve a patient's quality of life and reduce health care costs and hospitalizations.

Specific to biotechnology, Bioheart is focused on the discovery, development and, subject to regulatory approval, commercialization of autologous cell therapies for the treatment of chronic and acute heart damage and peripheral vascular disease. Its leading product, MyoCell, is a clinical muscle-derived cell therapy designed to populate regions of scar tissue within a patient's heart with new living cells for the purpose of improving cardiac function in chronic heart failure patients.
